RULES OF THE GAME

Two teams of six players each (three in play and three replacements), each player with a racket, play against each other to win the match. Their aim: to hit the opponent's target board with the ball. The players achieve this by passing the ball between team-mates and by moving individually. The court is 20 m in length and 10 m in width. The duration of a match is 20 minutes, played in 4 periods of 5 minutes each. In an informal setting, the duration of play may be set freely.

RAQBALL is a mixed sport. As it is non-contact, both male and female players can play it together despite differences in physical strength.

A SPORT SUITABLE FOR SCHOOLS

RAQBALL helps exercising the child's basic skills:

The rules are simple and make the game
